Jail 2 Newportville Men As Officials War On Piggeries

More Arrests Contemplated In Effort To Aid Health Laws

DOYLESTOWN, May 2 — Federal Government and State agents from the Department of Agriculture are waging a clean-up campaign among the owners of a number of lower Bucks county piggeries where there have been numerous health law violations. Several arrests already have been made and more are contemplated.

The spread of Vesicular Xanthema, something like the hoof and mouth disease in cattle, has been found rampant on some Bucks county pig farms, where the Federal Government already has placed quarantines, and where violations are taking place daily.

Pigs on some of the farms where quarantines exist are being "boot-legged" for sale and are being shipped to buyers or sold on the premises, against both Federal and Pennsylvania State laws.

Howard Blasch, 26, of Newportville rd., who with his father, John Blasch, has approximately 500 pigs according to the son, was arrested Thursday and committed to Bucks County Prison in default of $650 bail, which he produced last night for his release for a hearing.

The father was arrested three days ago and taken before Justice of the Peace Ewing, Cornwells Heights, where he produced bail. The son, not having sufficient fine money, was committed to the County Prison by Justice of the Peace B. Frank Brunner, Doylestown.

Both father and son will be given hearings at 1:30 p. m. Tuesday at Justice Brunner's office where the State Department of Agriculture has filed charges against a number of pig farmers.

Philadelphia Youth Given 5 to 15 Years

DOYLESTOWN, May 2 — Warren Long, 19, of Philadelphia, a member of the "wine and dine" gang in that city, now serving time in the Bucks County Prison, pleaded guilty in Philadelphia to 17 burglaries and four holdups. He was sentenced to from five to 15 years in the Eastern State Penitentiary by Judge Edwin O. Lewis.

Long was taken to Philadelphia handcuffed to Head Jailer Carl Schmieg, of the Bucks County Prison, and was brought back to Doylestown after the sentence had been pronounced.

Long is serving 9 to 23 months here for operating an automobile without the consent of the owner. He will be taken before the Bucks county court again on numerous burglary charges growing out of escapades in the Morrisville and Croydon sections of Bucks County.

Long will most likely serve his sentence imposed after completion of existing sentences here.

Two other members of the "wine and dine" gang were sentenced Monday in Philadelphia to long prison terms.

Police said the gang committed 80 thefts over a period of several months in the Philadelphia area and obtained loot value at $120,000. Five others under 19 years of age were given indeterminate sentences last March 11 in White Hill and Pennypack House.

... NEWS BRIEFS ...

Hail Storm Last Night Does Slight Damage

Hailstones pelted lower Bucks County yesterday in a heavy storm that broke out about 6 p. m. and continued for periods ranging from five to ten minutes dropping the pellets, variously reported from the size of large marbles in Bucks, Delaware, Montgomery and Philadelphia counties, to "golf ball" sizes reported in the Camden area.

The damage reported from the storm was slight throughout the area. More serious damage might have resulted had the storm been accompanied by high winds.

The edge of the storm was so sharp that in the Fallsington section no hail was reported.

Church Seader Resigns From Township Police

Joseph O. Seader submitted to the Board of Commissioners of Bristol Township his resignation from the police force. It was accepted by unanimous action at a special meeting of the Board held at nine o'clock this morning.

A statement released by the Board shortly before noon today said:

"One of the members of the present police force will act temporarily in the capacity of acting chief. The commissioners plan to make every effort to obtain a man with long police experience and excellent qualifications to assume permanently the duties of chief of police. They hope to be able to obtain a retired or pensioned former State Police officer or other officer of a large police force, preferably one who has had experience in position of command and has demonstrated his ability to handle men and assume a position of leadership. Bristol Township requires a Police Chief who must have a thorough familiarity with all phases of police work generally experienced by a police force of Bristol Township's present and anticipated size. He should be experienced in the investigation of crimes, the prevention thereof, and in the apprehension of criminals."

"The commissioners do not expect to rush or be rushed into acquiring a new permanent Chief of Police."

On April 25th it was announced that Police Chief Seader and Officer Harvey Shaw were suspended for one week in connection with a dispute which occurred between the chief and Officer Shaw on April 22nd. The suspensions were announced by Oscar Booz, chairman of the police committee of the Board of Commissioners. Chief Seader said at that time his suspension was "completely unfair". He was unavailable this morning to comment on the resignation.

Youths Have Switch-Blade Knives, Brass Knuckles

Bristol Police at 1:30 this morning picked up three teen-age boys who were walking in the vicinity of Farragut avenue and Green Lane, the trio, according to officers having in their possession two switch-blade knives and a set of brass knuckles.

The boys, one 15 years old, the other two 14, were detained at the Municipal bldg., then released in custody of their parents this morning to appear later in court. All live near Bristol.

Officers Matthew Bragg and William Bolton apprehended the youths.

L. Bucks Authority Opposes Industry Near New School

Bids Opened For Supplies For Neshaminy High School

LANGHORNE, May 2 — The Lower Bucks County School Board Authority last night instructed their solicitor, Myron Harris, Esq., to oppose the request that a plot of land near the site of the proposed new Neshaminy High School be rezoned from residential to industrial.

The owner of the plot, Damon Johnson, had recently asked to have the land made industrial. According to John T. Mladjen, secretary, the Authority is opposed to the change because the location of industries would create a "safety hazard" at the new school. "Where you have heavy industry you must have trucks," Mladjen said. "That's poor planning."

"I have practically never seen anyone granted the authority to change the land next to a school site to industrial use," Mladjen added. "That is about the last thing any zoning board of adjustment has ever done."

Bids were received from two firms for supplying furniture for the arts and crafts department of the high school. Low bidder was Edward J. Leech Co., who bid $3,327.19 C. G. Wall Associates bid $4,498. Mladjen said the Authority will examine samples of the equipment before awarding a contract.

DIRTY CITIES
Edna Ferber, the novelist, had some sad and angry words to say about New York City when she looked around the big town after a 10-week vacation abroad. She called it "the most disgustingly filthy" city in the world. Its streets are "covered with garbage." She loves it still, though in the last 10 years especially it has become "dirty, degraded, blowzy."

Sanitation Commissioner Mulrain resented what he called the insult, but he is quoted as having said much the same thing himself not long ago. And now people in New York City are writing letters to newspapers to complain about the dirty streets, comparing the city with cities in Europe—to New York's disadvantage.

But New York is not alone in her dirt and grime. Any observant American returning to this country from abroad finds that littered streets are the rule here, not the exception. Philadelphia is not much better than New York, if any, nor is Chicago. And medium-sized cities look terribly down-at-the-heels, too.

The consensus of opinion of those who have seen both say New York is far more slatternly than London, threadbare as the English capital looks after years of austerity. Even a big, overrun, watering place like Rhyl in Wales, it is contended, compares favorably with Atlantic City.

What to do about it? Hiring more street cleaners does not seem to be the answer, even if it were financially possible. Probably Americans need to acquire a little more civic pride than they now have. People make the dirt, and they cannot deny it.

CHEAPER BEEF

Pork quotations on the Chicago wholesale market have advanced 50 per cent in the last year, while beef prices dropped 35 per cent. This is one of the quirks of a messed up economic system, which is controlled, decontrolled, adjusted, readjusted, and just plain shoved and reshoved this way and that.

Consumers certainly have no complaint about prices for beef at the present time. They are not out of line with the general price level, unless they are too low, as cattlemen contend.

But there is a lack of the traditional synchronization of relative costs of beef and pork. This has already resulted in drops in pork sales in many cities, and a corresponding increase in demand for beef. Consumers can, of course, effect a reduction in pork prices as well as an increase in beef quotations by shifting from purchases of one to the other. This seems to be what is taking place.

But a housewife who has toyed with meat substitutes for years is not likely to be deterred from buying steaks by fear that her action will result in higher prices. If steaks are to be had at prices people feel they can afford, there will be a great upsurge of this choice meat from meat counter to grill.

Today's Quiet Moment
Rev. Anthony A. Marinac, Pastor
Bristol Christian Church

"Whosoever will come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow Me." — (Mark 8:24)

There is but one cross—it is the cross of self-abnegation. To Christ the Cross meant one thing and nothing less: His sacrifice of Himself to save others. And that is what it must mean to every disciple. To take up the cross, and bear it after Christ, is to undertake, like the Master, a life of self-denial for the saving of others. It is to lose life and lose self for His sake. It is to be willing to die, if need be, that others may live.

When our Lord hung upon the Cross, His enemies tauntingly said, "He saved others; Himself He cannot save." No sneer ever had a truth so sublime. In the Christian life, saving self and saving others is utterly incompatible. And the one great difficulty with the whole body of professed disciples is that most of them are trying to save themselves and yet to be saved.

NEWS OF THE LEVITTOWN COMMUNITY

Bridge Club Charity Party Will Benefit Heart Fund

LEVITTOWN, May 2—Levittown Bridge Club will hold a charity game, May 7th, at 8 p. m., on behalf of American Contract Bridge League charity fund, which this year is the American Heart Fund. Proceeds will be used for the work carried on by the heart fund in this area. The affair will be held in Fallsington Library.

For those bridge players interested in master points, there will be two full master points issued to the winning pair and one master point to the runners-up. Fractional rating points will be awarded to the 3rd, 4th and 5th pairs.

With an ever-increasing number of players enjoying the bi-weekly duplicate games, each session's results show various players emerging as winners. This is a good indication of the opportunity for each player to share in the prizes sooner or later. The winners on Thursday, April 23rd, from a group of 34 players, were: N-S, 1st, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Masters, 24 Birch drive; 2nd, Mr. and Mrs. William Dwyer, 38 Fireside lane; E-W, 1st, E. Faye, 131 Stonybrook drive, and John Howarth, 30 Good lane; 2nd, Ned Elliott, Hatboro, and Mrs. Berger, 8 Strawberry lane.

The next session, May 7th, will not only be the charity game but will also be the third session of the current series. Individuals may contact M. Melnik, 30 Garden lane, or Sydne Allen, 6 Ember lane, for further information.

"Levittowner" in Iowa
Gets $13,000 Price Tag

LEVITTOWN, May 2 — It would cost $13,000 to build a "Levittowner" house in Sioux City, Iowa, according to a letter Levitt & Sons, Inc., received yesterday from a man who planned to build one there.

The lowan, J. William Tuttle said contractors gave him the estimate of $13 per square foot for the 1000-square-foot "Levittowner". This, he added, does not include the lot or landscaping, heater, kitchen appliances or parks and swimming pools. The "Levitt package" here costs $11,000.

Tuttle wrote to the Levitt firm in April asking whether a Levittown house could be shipped out to him. In replying, a Levitt representative said no, but suggested that he set up a building plans for $5 from Better Homes and Gardens Magazine.

In the letter received yesterday, Tuttle did not say whether he will go ahead and spend $13,000 for a Levittown house.

DOYLESTOWN, May 2 — It would cost $13 per square foot for the 1000-square-foot "Levittowner". This, he added, does not include the lot or landscaping, heater, kitchen appliances or parks and swimming pools. The "Levitt package" here costs $11,000.

NEWS OF THE LEVITTOWN COMMUNITY

Bridge Club Charity Party Will Benefit Heart Fund

LEVITTOWN, May 2—Levittown Bridge Club will hold a charity game, May 7th, at eight p. m., on behalf of American Contract Bridge League charity fund, which this year is the American Heart Fund. Proceeds will be used for the work carried on by the heart fund in this area. The affair will be held in Fallsington Library.

For those bridge players interested in master points, there will be two full master points issued to the winning pair and one master point to the runners-up. Fractional rating points will be awarded to the 3rd, 4th and 5th pairs.

With an ever-increasing number of players enjoying the bi-weekly duplicate games, each session's results show various players emerging as winners. This is a good indication of the opportunity for each player to share in the prizes sooner or later. The winners on Thursday, April 23rd, from a group of 34 players, were: N-S, 1st, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Masters, 24 Birch drive; 2nd, Mr. and Mrs. William Dwyer, 38 Fireside lane; E-W, 1st, E. Foyle, 131 Stonybrook drive, and John Howarth, 30 Good lane; 2nd, Ned Elliott, Hatboro, and Mrs. Berger, 8 Strawberry lane.

The next session, May 7th, will not only be the charity game but will also be the third session of the current series. Individuals may contact M. Melnik, 39 Garden lane, or Sydney Allen, 6 Ember lane, for further information.

"Levittowner" in Iowa
Gets $13,000 Price Tag

LEVITTOWN, May 2 — It would cost $13,000 to build a "Levittowner" house in Sioux City, Iowa, according to a letter Levitt & Sons, Inc., received yesterday from a man who planned to build one there.

The Iowan, J. William Tuttle said contractors gave him the estimate of $13 per square foot for the 1000-square-foot "Levittowner". This, he added, does not include the lot or landscaping, heater, kitchen appliances or parks and swimming pools. The "Levitt package" here costs $11,000.

Tuttle wrote to the Levitt firm in April asking whether a Levittown house could be shipped out to him. In replying, a Levitt representative said no, but suggested that he buy a set of building plans for $5 from Better Homes and Gardens Magazine.

In the letter received yesterday,

Tuttle did not say whether he will go ahead and spend $13,000 for a Levittown house.

day when the defendant decided to change his pleas.

A jury, which deliberated five hours and 10 minutes Tuesday and couldn't agree was discharged by Judge Edwin H. Satterthwaite and the defendant, Byron M. Myers, 50, Bedminster twp., released under bail.

Myers is charged with operating his car while under the influence of intoxicating liquor May 1 in Sellersville, where he was arrested by Chief of Police William D. Hamerschmidt.

The jury retired to deliberate at 16:40 yesterday morning and came in for additional instruction at 2 o'clock. At 2:45 Foreman Russell Stackhouse, Morrisville, RD, informed the Court that it was a "hung jury."

Two men jurors couldn't agree with the other 10 on the fundamental issues, which were first, "Was the defendant, Myers, driving the car?" Second, was he under the influence of alcohol, and third, do the driving of the car and the being under the influence of alcohol coincide?" The two men jurors insisted they couldn't coincide the second and third issues, "Was Myers under the influence and was he driving the car?"

Witnesses for the Commonwealth

were James K. Hackett, Perkasie reporter; Chief Hamerschmidt, Dr. C. A. Cresley, Sellersville physician who examined Myers and pronounced him unfit to drive; John J. Smith, Sellersville patrolman; Burgess Lloyd A. Hoagy, Ernest L. Muth and Justice of the Peace W. Lee Wilhelm.

Harry B. Hills, near Pipersville, who employs Myers, was his character witness.

SPORTS IN THE LOCAL FIELD

Bristol High's Lead Grown With Win Over Morrisville, 8-0

LANGHORNE, May 2 — Fifty of NASCAR's top flight late model stock car pilots will go to the post tomorrow afternoon in the running of the 150-Grand National Circuit Championship at the famed Langhorne Speedway, situated along U.S. Highway No. 1, between Philadelphia and Trenton. The green flag will drop on the field at 3 p.m.

Tim Flock, 1952 National Champion and second man in the grid last season, will endeavor to regain the lead in the current standings, and hopes to use the Langhorne feature as a stepping stone to overtake Herb Thomas present leader. Thomas won the title in 1951. Dick Rathman, of Los Angeles, is the defending champion in the event. Fonty Flock is another standout in the field of fifty.

Lee Petty, winner of the Richmond "200" two weeks ago and also winner of the fall feature at Langhorne, looms as another threat. Buck Baker, 1952 Speedway Division champion, is another outstanding threat to the field. Listed among the other entries are: Dick Passwater, a hopeful from Indianapolis; Don Oldenburg, Jimmy Lewallen, Herschel Buchanan, Ted Chamberlin, Don Thomas, Slick Smith, Curtis Turner, Bill Blair and Gober Sosbee.

Rowing Ass'n Will Christen 8-Oared Shell on Sunday

At three o'clock tomorrow afternoon at Lafayette street and the Delaware river the first official opening of the Bucks County Rowing Association is scheduled to occur.

The 8-oared shell donated to the Bucks Co. Rowing Ass'n by James Flannery, Pendel, will be christened by Liz Ann Kelly, sister of "Jack" Kelly, the famous oarsman, and of Grace Kelly, who just completed a picture with Clark Gable. The official name of the shell will be "Jim Flannery".

Rowing crews from Bristol high school, Bensalem high, and Delhaas are members of the association, and it is expected that the exercises tomorrow afternoon will be largely attended by the parents and friends of the pupils of these schools.

Council Rock Trounces Southampton High, 20 to 7

RICHBORO, May 2 — Council Rock High had one of its best days yesterday as it trounced Southampton High, 20-7, in Lower Bucks League game on the winner's diamond. It was the second win in six starts for Coach Dominic Sagona's team and sixth straight loss for Southampton.

Cecil Morris was the big gun in the Indians' attack as he drove in 7 runs with a double, triple, and home run. His homer in the fifth cleared the bases. Bob Techner helped along by getting a double and pair of singles.

While all this was going on, Harold Koenig had the Greyhounds eating out of his hands. He allowed five hits and held Southampton to two runs until he let up in the final frame and five runs crossed the plate. Koenig scored four of Council Rock's tallies.
